Interested in becoming a vendor with the 2024 New Earth Village Love Festivals and Artisan Markets?

We welcome aligned Vendors, Performers, Collaborators and Workshops!

Are you a conscious local business owner who welcomes all without discrimination?

Would you like to share your heart-spaced offerings and creations, be it painting, jewellery, sacred tinctures, handcrafted goods, wood work, farm fresh veggies, tie-dye clothing, we'd be honoured to have you co-create magic in our sacred gathering.

Important to us is the responsibility to empower the voices and support the work of the BIPOC.

Sacred reciprocity, integrity, mutual solidarity, and unity is our philosophy.

If you know someone in the BIPOC community who is a local craft maker, please feel free to share this initiative with them.

GUIDELINES FOR VENDORS (please read thoroughly):

The New Earth Festivals and Markets run from 11 AM to 6 PM. All Vendors must arrive on site at 9:45 AM and be set up by 10:30 AM. We do not hold spots, so come at 9:45 AM to ground on the land and choose your spot. Vendors cannot tear down until the market ends at 6 PM.

We are operating RAIN or SHINE!

Vendors are required to bring in a tent or shade structure, weights, table. Vendors are required to bring in chairs, tablecloths, displays, signs, and all necessary items for the booth.

When arriving, you will be guided on where to park for the day and will be able to unload/load from your parking spot. Please bring a trolley/wagon to carry your table, crafts, and offerings with you to the sacred space where you'll set up.

Vendors are required to display business name and contact information, and provide information to customer where they can be reached.

FOOD Vendors are required to have all prepared food properly packed, covered, and ingredients listed. Vendors are required to ensure that their table display is kept clean and if showcasing food, that all food is stored at the proper temperature.

All products being sold at the market must comply with applicable Provincial and Federal regulations regarding labeling, measures, health and safety, etc. Vendors are responsible for obtaining any and all required licenses, permits, inspections and certification for the products they will be selling.

Vendors agree to allow for an inspection of their product(s) and premises, if need arises.

Vendors agree to accept full responsibility and ownership for any loss, damage, or accident occurring on the Market as a result of negligence or carelessness on the part of the vendor, and the Vendor indemnifies and holds harmless Natalie Hemraj and/or Gurshawn Hansi from all claims, demands, losses, damages, and actions that may arise.

Natalie Hemraj and/or Gurshawn Hansi bear no responsibility for any vendor property at the market.

Vendors are required to begin closing and cleaning up their tables/tent at 6:00 PM and not before, and must clear their area by 6:30 PM.

Vendors are required to take away all waste, compost, and/or recycling matter that they produce and ensure that the area around their table is free from litter.

If the vendor is bringing in any family/children, a separate family ticket must be purchased.

If the vendor is bringing in their children, the children must be supervised at all times. (Please be mindful that there are plenty of areas for risky play. We advise NO climbing cedar rail fences, to be cautious around the water, and NO digging on the beach as the sand is not that deep. Be aware of the wild plants growing on the land and ticks in the shrubs and tall grasses).

Please pack beverages, snacks, and lunches.

If Vendor is bringing in a guest/family member/friend outside of who they directly work with in their business, they must have a guest ticket to enter that is paid prior to event day. Due to the amount of individuals interested in this unique offering, we are unable to accommodate walk-ins on event day.

I hereby agree that I have read and agree to the guidelines listed above of Natalie Hemraj and Gurshawn Hansi, at The New Earth Love Festival.
